Großbritannien.

Bestehend aus England mit Wales, Schottland, Irland, den normannischen Inseln an der französischen Küste, den Inseln Man, Scilly, den Hebriden, Orkaden, Schetland. Fernere Besitzungen in Europa sind Helgoland, Gibraltar, Cosmino. Zusammen 5556 $\frac{1}{2}$ Q. = M. Hierzu kommen mit Einschluß der Besitzungen der ostindischen Kompagnien 85,000 Q. = M. außereuropäische Besitzungen. Die Bevölkerung der europäischen Besitzungen wird auf 27 Millionen geschätzt.

1. Königreich England.

Eingetheilt in England und Wales. Ersteres in 8 Provinzen (und diese in Shires und Counties), letzteres in Nord- und Südwales, wovon jedes 6 Shires enthält.

London.

Hauptstadt in der Landschaft Middlesex, an der Themse; die größte, volkreichste und reichste Stadt Europas, mit 2 Millionen Einwohner, 40 Märkten. London besteht aus der eigentlichen Stadt London (City), dem Flecken Southwark, der Stadt Westminster, den vorstädtischen Bezirken Holbourn, Finsbury, Tower, Surrey, Middlesex und 105 Kirchspielen (unter denen Stepney in D. das größte auf der Erde ist, da alle englische Matrosen und Seefahrer unter die dortige Pfarrei gehören, und die auf dem Meere Gestorbenen in die Kirchenbücher von Stepney eingetragen werden müssen), und hat 26 Wards (Stadtviertel), deren jedes unter einem Alderman steht. Die City ist meistens eng, winklicht, liegt an der Themse und dem Hafen, und hängt durch die londoner und Blackfriarsbrücke mit der in der Grafs-schaft Surrey liegenden, engen, unregelmäßigen und vom Steinkolendampf geschwärzten Southwark zusammen, in welcher der Sitz des Erzbischofs von Kent und das Baurhall ist. Die Westminsterbrücke verbindet diesen Stadttheil mit dem westlich neben der City liegenden Westminster, dem schöneren Theile der Stadt mit breiten Strassen und schönen Häusern. — Vorzüglich merkwürdig sind: der königl. Residenzpalast St. James (dabei der St. James Park, in dem der ungeheuerere französische Mörser aufgestellt ist, der $3\frac{1}{2}$ engl. M. weit schießt, und der Gardegarde gegenüber die 18 F. hohe Bronzefigursäule, die einen nackten Krieger darstellt, und eine Copie des auf dem Monte Cavallo in Rom stehenden Gladiator ist; sie wiegt 6600 Pfd., ist aus den in Spanien eroberten Kanonen gegossen, steht auf einem 11 Fuß hohen Piedestal; Buckingham-House, der Wohnpalast des Königs im St. James Park, York-House; der Tower (eine alte Festung mit Zeughaus, Reichsarchiv, Juwelensammer, Menagerie &c.); die St. Paulskirche, Nelsons u. a. Denkmäler; die Westminsterabtei, wo die Könige begraben werden, mit Denkmälern von Shakespeare, Händel, Goldsmith, die St. Stephanskirche, St. Pancratiuskirche (nach dem Muster des Tempels der Minerva Polias, so wie der Thurm nach dem Thurm der Winde in Athen gebaut); prächtige Brücken und Docks. Das Zollhaus (480 F. lang, 100 F. tief; das größte Zimmer 200 F. lang und 76 F. breit; es ist für 650 Zollbeamte und 1050 Zollbediente eingerichtet), das Waterloo-Denkmal auf dem Portlandplatz (ein antiker Thurm von 3 Säulenordnungen, ähnlich dem bewunderten Sybyllentempel zu Tivoli), Denkmal des Herzogs von Wellington auf Blackdownhill (ein Dreieck 150 F. hoch mit einer 20 F. hohen, aus Eisen gegossenen Bildsäule des Herzogs auf der Spitze), das Monument (eine 202 F. hohe Säule, zum Andenken der Feuersbrunst, die 1666 13,200 Häuser, 89 Kirchen, die Börse &c. verzehrte), das Admiraltäts-Haus, die Börse (203 F. lang), die Bank (mit mehr als 1000 Schreibern und Cassirern), die kleine oder Penny-Post (mit 5 Hauptpost- und 570 Unterämtern, die jährlich 60,000 Pfd. einbringt), das Mansionhouse (Haus des Lord Mayor), das neue Münzgebäude, das Rathhaus; 14 Theater. Zalreiche Sammlungen, worunter das brittische Museum, das ostindische Haus, Merlins, Museum &c. 5000 Erziehungsanstalten, bedeutende Fabriken und ausgebreiteter Handel nach allen Theilen der Welt, (jährlich kommen 18—20,000 Schiffe an).
